FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL MEMORANDUM

SB 470 – HB 1756

May 28, 2009

SUMMARY OF AMENDMENTS (008577, 009011): Deletes all language after the enacting clause and creates a pilot program for the Department of Health to award Title X grant funding for women's health services in Davidson and Shelby Counties through a request for grant proposal. The pilot program will be for funding in fiscal years 2010, 2011, 2012. The Department of Health shall consider funding requests from the Davidson and Shelby County public health departments if the departments can provide the services directly and exclusively by its own personnel within 30 days of receiving funding prior to considering the requests from private organizations. Prohibits the pilot program from applying to Davidson or Shelby County.

FISCAL IMPACT OF ORIGINAL BILL:

Increase State Expenditures - $8,800/One-Time
$152,800/Recurring

FISCAL IMPACT OF BILL WITH PROPOSED AMENDMENTS:

MINIMAL

Assumptions applied to amendments:

- The proposed pilot program is only for awarding Title X grant funding in Davidson and Shelby Counties. If the pilot program is not applicable to Davidson and Shelby Counties, then there will not be a pilot program implemented.
- There will be no changes to the Department of Health's current practice in awarding the Title X grant funds.
- No fiscal impact on state government.
